Coroner's Jury Finds Fatal Shooting Of Kenneth Shultz December 1 Was 'Accidental'

The deer season wounding of Kenneth I. Shultz, Orrtanna R. D., was labeled as an "accidental shooting" Monday evening by a coroner's jury after two hours of testimony from members of the hunting party and investigators.

The verdict named Richard Currens, Orrtanna, as the man who fired the shot that fatally wounded Shultz as he, the dead man and two companions hunted deer near Caledonia last December 1, the first day of the deer season. Currens was shooting at a deer when he fired the shot that resulted in Shultz's death March 22 in a veterans' hospital in Martinsburg, W. Va., the jury held.

Twelve witnesses testified at the inquest conducted in the court room by Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner. Witnesses were questioned by the coroner and by District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter.

Testimony conflicted in a number of instances. Several witnesses told of hearing three shots at the time Shultz was hit while one member of the party said there were four, followed later by several more. There was conflicting testimony as to whether Shultz was shot in the back or side and whether there was a "hunter from York" in the immediate vicinity at the time of the shooting who "ran away" after Shultz was shot.

Called "Light Fingers"

State police and Game Commission representatives who investigated said all the evidence indicated that the fatal shot came from the direction in which Richard Currens was standing and that it could not have come from any other members of the hunting party although Nelson Shultz, brother of the victim, and Kenneth Shultz also took part in the firing when a doe and a buck broke cover between the hunters.

Robert Crone, McKnightstown, first witness called to the stand, named Currens, Nelson Shultz and Kenneth Shultz as his hunting companions that day and said the party had stopped at Rock Top Inn, near Cashtown, for beer enroute to the Caledonia area.

Crone said that Currens, who was described by another witness later as "light-fingers with a gun," fired several times during the morning at deer other members of the hunting party did not see and once at a doe to "warn" the others that a deer was coming.

Heard Three Shots

The group resumed hunting after lunch, Crone said, and then he and Currens stopped to rest while the Shultz brothers started circling a hill. Crone said he "heard three shots ring out" and Nelson called that his brother was shot. He said he did not know who fired the shot that hit Kenneth Shultz. Only Currens was in Crone's view at the time of the shooting and Crone did not see him fire but thought the shots came from the direction of the Shultz brothers. He told of carrying the wounded man to a nearby cottage from where he was removed to the Chambersburg Hospital.

On cross-examination by the district attorney, Crone said he saw a doe in the area between the hunters just after the shooting. He quoted Currens as saying after the shooting: "Oh my God, why did this have to happen to me?"

Crone told of seeing another hunter some distance down the hill from Currens but could not identify him. Currens was the only other person to see the fifth hunter and said he had a conversation with him and learned he was from York. Crone said Currens was never out of his view and he did not see the two men close enough for conversation.

Saw Brother Fall

Crone said Shultz was wearing a maroon jacket and gray trousers and expressed the opinion that Currens could have seen Kenneth Shultz in spite of considerable brush.

The next witness was Nelson Shultz, who said he was conversing with his brother and saw Kenneth drop to the ground after the third shot. The first shot was fired by Nelson; then Kenneth fired and was in the act of ejecting the empty shell when he was hit by a third shot. Shultz said he saw a buck and a doe. Currens and Kenneth Shultz were "pretty friendly," Nelson said and there was no ill will between them.

Richard Currens was called next and took the stand after being warned that anything he said might be used against him in court. Currens declared he did not fire directly at Kenneth Shultz but thought a bullet from his gun may have glanced off a rock and caused the fatal injury. He said he had heard a shot, saw Nelson moving, saw the buck and fired two shots. He could not see Kenneth Shultz when he shot at the buck. Currens added. He told of talking with the unidentified York hunter, who was only a short distance away when the shooting took place and "ran off" after the shots were fired. He told of hearing seven or eight shots, instead of three.

Widow Testifies

Asked about his earlier shooting at deer his companions could not see, Shultz said he did not know it was illegal to shoot at random or shoot mark in the woods during deer season. One shot, he said, was to check his sights after a fall.

Mrs. Kenneth Shultz, widow of

AG. EDITOR IS BESIEGED WITH MANY QUERIES

"Spring is back, and so am I," wrote a reader of The Gettysburg Times to Dan B. Van Gorder, agricultural editor of The Times, and this sentiment was repeated in a variety of wordings in dozens of letters received by Mr. Van Gorder recently from Times subscribers.

The largest proportion of letters received by Mr. Van Gorder are from Adams County residents, but many are also sent to him from persons living in adjoining counties and some in Maryland. A large number are farmers, while others are amateur gardeners.

Many questions refer to agriculture in general. The gardeners want to know what to do about weeds, control of moles, construction of hotbeds, pruning, cabbage and asparagus culture, and a host of other related matters.

Some have written asking spray schedules and materials for peaches and how to care for raspberries and other bramble fruits.

One reader who was a recent patient in the hospital and who received several plants while there wrote asking about the care of the plants after she returned to her home.

Information on all these subjects pertaining to gardens and agriculture will be supplied by Mr. Van Gorder if a self-addressed and stamped envelope is enclosed with the letter.

Reception: On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Adam Ertter very pleasantly entertained about 160 of their friends at a reception given at their comfortable home on Chambersburg street, in honor of their marriage.

Those who assisted in receiving were Mrs. George B. Zane, Miss Annie Horner, Miss Blanche Weigle, Miss Kittmiller, Miss Arendt, Miss Auman, of Gettysburg; Miss Cooper, McSherrystown; Miss Corwell and Miss Catharine Corwell, Fairfield; Messrs. John Wisotzkey, Arthur McCleary, Thomas Smith and Edward Eckenrode.

The occasion was a very enjoyable one and was enlivened by serenades given by the Grand Army and Colored Bands and the Boys' Drum Corps.

The bridal present were numerous and costly.

Strawberries are now on sale in town and are worth 25 cents per box.

Bryan's Visit to Gettysburg: There was a large crowd at the Western Maryland depot Saturday afternoon when the 3:52 train rolled in, eager to get a glance of the twice defeated Presidential candidate. Mr. Bryan was escorted to the Hotel Gettysburg by the reception committee, where a reception was held. Late in the afternoon he, in company with Edw. A. Weaver, W. C. Sheely, Esq., and George F. Young took a short drive on the first day's field.

In the evening Xavier Hall was well filled with an intelligent audience who braved the rain to listen to Mr. Bryan's lecture.

Edward A. Weaver, Esq., to whom belongs the honor of bringing the Nebraska here, introduced him as the orator of the evening.

Mr. Bryan delivered his lecture on "A Conquering Nation," which is conceded to have been one of the best ever listened to by a Gettysburg audience. Mr. Bryan was heartily applauded. Although he spoke for two and one-fourth hours, it appeared to his hearers to have been but an hour, so interesting was his lecture.

On Sunday he attended Communion.

THE WASTER

None knows his purpose here, or why He still lives on and others die; Or where, beyond and out of view, Awaits the task he still must do, With or without his full consent, The task for which his birth was meant

Some call it Chance that shapes the post Where seems the man was needed most And brings him surely to the spot Where he could serve and others not.

He, the one man of all the throng, At the right hour to come along.

There was a waster, judged alone By all that is to mortals shown: Shabby of raiment, soiled of cheek, Indolent, passion-ruled and weak. Men had condemned him, yet he gave What life he had a child to save.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
OUR ENTERTAINERS

What a debt we owe to those who entertain us over the radio, TV, upon the stage, and in movies! Only after long practice, many discouragements, and much sacrifice do any of these people become efficient enough to take important roles. Many remain almost obscure until they "spark" in stardom.

These people entertain us when we most need it, make us laugh when we do not feel like it, and all of them inspire millions into a happier way of life. The services rendered for charitable purposes and to increase morale among our fighting men on the battlefield are very great, and the entertainers become deeply beloved for their gift of hope and cheer.

Many of these entertainers of ours give of themselves so much that they injure their health but they think little of this. They say, "The show must go on!" And so it does, and so do they keep giving of their substance and talent, all of us becoming more and more in their debt.

It is impossible to estimate the good that our entertainers radiate. Their influence is felt in all our cities and in millions of our homes. It isn't an easy life that these entertainers experience. Only after many, many years do any of them gain that coveted "Oscar." Many never get it — but their services are stored in millions of hearts just the same — and this is all that many wish as compensation.

Don't be afraid to give praise to any of your favorites. Appreciation means more than money to a great artist. It's spiritual bread and meat to them! These entertainers like additional appreciation and understanding — after the applause dies down! That's where we all come in.

With all the demands that a public entertainer has, still he or she always holds himself available where a worthy cause invites his or her participation — often at a sacrifice, and habitually without compensation. A thousand cheers to them all!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Emptying the Heart."

DECLARES U. S. REGULATIONS CRIPPLE STEEL

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Benjamin F. Fairless, chairman of the U. S. Steel Corp., said Monday the steel industry is suffering from "financial malnutrition" despite 12 years of record production.

Fairless spoke before the triple convention of the American Supply and Machinery Manufacturers Association, Inc., the National Industrial Distributors Association, and the Southern Distributors Association.

Government regulations, Fairless said, have boost U. S. Steel's employment costs 155 per cent since 1940 and raised the price of goods and services 138 per cent.

In that period, he said, steel prices have been allowed to go up only 87 per cent.

In the event of a third world war, Fairless said, the steel industry would be called upon to erect new facilities.

Can't Get Money
"Where do we get the capital to do it?" he asked. "With construction costs as they are today, and with steel prices at the present levels, a fully-integrated new plant would probably produce a profit of about 1 1/2 per cent on the capital invested in it."

"Where—outside a mental institution, perhaps—can we find anyone who would be willing to risk his money with us at that rate, when he can get twice as much from a government savings bond?"

With the removal of most allocation controls on June 30, the steel industry must prove it can do a better job of distributing steel than the government, Fairless said. He added that "should not be too difficult."

"As long as all of us concentrate our efforts within the proper limits of our respective and familiar fields of distribution, I have no doubt that we shall come a lot closer to fulfilling the requirements of all of our customers than the government was able to do."

Peronista Party Sweeps Two Elections

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Early returns from elections Sunday in two Argentine provinces gave the government Peronista party an expected sweeping majority over the small Communist party—the only opposition.

In President Peron Province—the former Chaco Territory—the Peronista had tallied 19,863 votes compared to 678 for the Communists. Blank ballots totaled 1,985.

In Eva Peron Province—formerly Pampa Territory—the Peronistas drew 10,673 votes, and 1,901 ballots were blank.

An estimated 63 per cent of the 291,174 eligible voters in the two provinces cast ballots for senators and deputies in the Federal Congress and for governors and other provincial officials.

NEW YORK (AP)—A 16-year-old Knoxville, Tenn., civil defense leader Monday was named "Boy of the Year" from among 360,000 contenders.

The selection of John Ed Roberts Jr. was announced as National Boys' Club Week opened.

Roberts, the South's regional winner last year, was honored for leadership in his local club and in his community and for his training for the "Citizen of Tomorrow."

David W. Armstrong, national director of Boys' Clubs of America, announced the award.

Armstrong also released messages from President Eisenhower and former President Hoover commending the club's leaders.

MAGSAYSAY TO SEEK HIGH POST

MANILA (AP)—Ramon Magsaysay, former defense secretary, Monday planned a "great crusade" to wrest the Philippines presidency from the man and the party he quit in a sharp break.

Magsaysay accepted a landslide 705-49 nomination on Sunday to run on the anti-administration Nacionalista ticket next November.

The one-time scourge of Communist-led Huk outlaws probably will face President Elpidio Quirino, his former boss, who seems certain to be nominated again by the administration Liberal party next month.

Magsaysay quit the Liberal party in disagreement with Quirino over how to rid the Philippines of the Huk.

"We now embark on our great crusade," Magsaysay told some 800 yelling delegates after they gave him the nomination over Sen. Camilo Osias.

Quirino said he was pleased with the nomination, because Magsaysay is "decidedly a much weaker candidate" than others the Nacionalistas could have chosen.

TITO DECLARES REDS WILL NOT EASE COLD WAR

WASHINGTON (AP)—Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia said Monday Russia's new soft-spoken attitude is repudiation of Stalin's "whole policy up to this time" but means no easing of the cold war.

Tito, the only Communist chief of state to have broken with the Kremlin, said he believes Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia are among the weakest points in the Soviet satellite system in Eastern Europe.

Russia's satellites, he said, are its "instruments of the cold war" and to cling to them the Soviet might shift its cold war strategy. This shift, he said, would involve accepting "partial successes . . . within the whole continental framework of Europe and Asia."

Concentrate On Asia
"I believe, nevertheless," Tito said in a copyrighted interview in the magazine U. S. News and World Report, "that they will concentrate on Asia. If they come to the conclusion that it would be difficult to be successful both in Asia and in Europe they might be inclined to cede a little ground in Europe but not in Asia."

A real easing of the cold war, he said, would be signalled by Russian willingness to unify Germany and agree to an Austrian peace treaty.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, on his visit to Washington last week for conferences with U. S. officials, listed both of those concessions—plus withdrawal by

Arrest Union Boss For $11,390 Theft

NEW YORK (AP)—Joseph P. Ryan, burly boss of East Coast longshoremen, was arrested Monday on a 30-count grand larceny indictment accusing him of misusing union funds. He was charged specifically with theft of $11,390.

The 68-year-old president of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association had been summoned to the office of Dist. Atty. Frank Hogan.

Before he went inside, Ryan said he wasn't sure what was wanted with him.

Moments later, Hogan's office announced Ryan had been arrested "in connection with an indictment that charges theft of $11,390 from the funds of the I.L.A."

The thefts allegedly occurred between April 14, 1948, and April 16, 1951.

Major League Clubs Start Playing For Keeps Today; Braves Win Opener Monday

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Major league baseball clubs shook off their spring training wraps and started playing for keeps today after giving their newest partner, the Milwaukee Braves, a one-game head start.

About 225,000 fans were expected to sit in on the eight opening games. The weatherman predicted passable conditions everywhere.

The triumphant return of the big league sport to Milwaukee after 50 years drew a sellout crowd of 36,011, considerably above anything else in the National League.

Snow Postpones 2 Games In Boston

BOSTON (AP)—Wet grounds—actually a couple of inches of snow—forced postponement of the Boston Red Sox's baseball season opener today with the Washington Senators.

The Red Sox management also postponed tomorrow's game when it became evident the grounds could not be put in shape by then.

re-nominated but declined on the ground that he was now a member of the Adams County Association of Fire Chiefs. Officers will be elected at the May meeting to be held at New Oxford May 11.

William Mellors, Paul Hollinger and Rodney Little were named as auditors. Civil Defense arm bands were distributed to those sworn in as auxiliary police who had not previously received them. The forthcoming air raid alert on April 21 was discussed.

President Culp urged members of the association to attend a meeting at the Court House Wednesday night at which plans for participation in the state raid alert will be discussed. President Culp said the question of insurance coverage for auxiliary police on active volunteer duty had not been decided. He said William G. Weaver, county director, had sought opinions from Harrisburg, but had not received word as yet.

The president announced that first aid classes will start at the fire engine house in Gettysburg Thursday night and urged fire police to register and attend.

Lefty Warren Spahn drew the home assignment today against the Cards' Gerry Staley.

The washout in Washington cost Vice President Nixon his chance to toss out the first ball. His promised blooper pitch will have to wait until some other time because President Eisenhower said last night he will be back from his golfing holiday in Georgia for the rescheduled Washington opener Thursday.

A's Face Raschi

Today's largest crowd, some 50,000, was expected at Cleveland to watch the Indians and the Chicago White Sox, the two clubs figured to have the best chance of ending the Yankees' four-year reign in the American League. Bob Lemon of the Indians got the opening nod against Saul Rogovin.

Casey Stengel raises his fourth pennant at Yankee Stadium and then sends his charges into action against the Philadelphia Athletics with Vic Raschi facing Alex Kellner.

At Boston, the Red Sox meet Washington. Mel Parnell goes against Bob Porterfield.

Ned Garver, who shut out Detroit while wearing a St. Louis uniform in last year's opener, will try to reverse the trick this time in the only night game on today's schedule at St. Louis. Garver was traded to the Tigers early last season. Virgil Trucks, who pitched two-no hit games for Detroit in 1952, will open for the Browns.

Phils Meet Giants

The Boston-to-Milwaukee shift jugged the opening-day schedule in the National League and brought the Pittsburgh Pirates, the synthetic Grapefruit League champion, into Ebbets Field, home of the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Dodgers, heavy choice to win their second straight flag, start the chase with Carl Erskine on the mound against Murry Dickson.

The New York Giants, with Larry Jansen pitching, face the Philadelphia Phils in Philadelphia with Robin Roberts on the hill.

Cincinnati tries to get up to the .500 mark by throwing lefty Ken Raffensberger against Bob Rush and the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field.

Other railroads had to do similar work as Pullman cars came into more widespread usage in the following years. Thirteen eastern railroads participated in the honor of moving the President's body from Washington to Springfield. In general, the funeral train's route retraced Lincoln's path of four years before when he went to Washington to take the oath of office.

Baseball League Meeting Thursday

A meeting of the South Penn Baseball League will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the American Legion Home, Baltimore St.

Final plans for the opening of the season on Sunday, May 3, will be made and other important business transacted.

Arnold and Duncan were arrested on Baltimore St. and Russell on Buford Ave.

Ailing Vets May Get Free Fishing Tags

HARRISBURG (AP)—All war veterans hospitalized in Pennsylvania will be eligible for free fishing licenses if the House concurs in action of the State Senate.

Sen. Albert R. Pechan's (R-Armstrong) bill providing for the free licenses won unanimous consent of the Senate yesterday. It would apply in particular to patients at Valley Forge General Hospital, he said.

The senate passed, 45-1, two bills allowing the State Game and Fish Commissions to increase from 25 to 50 to 100 each the number of complimentary hunting and fishing licenses issued each year.

Sen. Joseph J. Yosko (R-Northampton) voted against both bills which are sponsored by Sen. C. Arthur Blass (R-Erie).

SEES FLAG FOR WHITE SOX IF STEPHENS PLAYS

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Vernon (Junior) Stephens is nearing the end of his baseball playing career after 11 years in the American League, yet General Manager Frank Lane of the Chicago White Sox figures his team will cop the pennant if Stephens can play regularly.

"Stephens is so anxious to play this season that I have signed him to a provisional contract," says Lane. "He can match his $35,000 salary of 1952 if he plays regularly."

"After we got Stephens from the Red Sox I asked him 'How many games do you think you can play?' 'I'd like to play them all,' Vernon answered.

"That was my cue to sign him on the basis of games played. He will get so much if he plays 100 games and much more if he can play 120 games. On his basic contract he took a sizable cut."

Stephens last year played less than 100 games for the first time in his career which shows 1,060 runs batted in. Hobbled by a bad knee in 1952, he got in 92 games and hit only 254, the lowest he ever hit. Though only 32, Stephens is very slow foot.

Million Dollar Infield

"We (Manager Paul Richards and Lane) think his bat will replace that of Ed Robinson who was traded to the A's for Ferris Fain," says the man who has traded $2,500,000 in players the last few years. "Stephens is a $100,000 player to us, even though he must beat out Rocco Kirsch for the third base post."

"When he plays he gives us a million dollar infield with Fain on first, Nelly Fox on second and Chico Carrasquel on short."

Lane, a winter resident of St. Petersburg, stopped off for a few days before heading for the White Sox training base in California.

"Much depends on shortstop," says Lane. "Carrasquel missed nine weeks because of a broken finger. I have a contract with him on weight problems and in order to make more money he must be under 175 pounds in mid-season. I can't speak Spanish but I know the Venezuelan understands dinero (money), and he loves it."

Won On Defense

"The Yankees didn't win the pennant on hitting, they won it on defense. That's why we got Fain. He's a great fielder and a fine bunter and great on the hit and run play."

The White Sox won only 8 of 22 games with the Yankees last year when they finished third, 14 games back of the champions.

"We were second at the All-Star Game time last July," says Lane "and I think we'll make a better run for the pennant this season. That Stephens deal could be a big one for us. And Fain—well, we offered the A's $300,000 for him (cash and/or players) two years ago."

Must Get Permission To Use Poison Bait

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new bill in the House would require the landowner's permission before the State Game Commission could use poison bait on his land to fight wildlife predators.

The bill was introduced yesterday by Rep. George A. Goodling (R-York) in order to specifically authorize use of poison bait but to first require clearance by the landowner.

Last year Game Commission officials were taken to court on charges of trespassing following a poison bait drive against foxes.

GAVILAN TO MEET

CLEVELAND (AP)—Welterweight Champ Kid Gavilan, who hasn't had a fight since he whipped Chuck Davey last February, gets back to work tonight in a 10-round non-title bout with Livio Minelli of Italy, the European welter king.

The Cuban Kid is unbeaten in his last 28 starts, including his technical knockout of Davey in Chicago, and is expected to have little trouble subduing the Italian boxer. In fact, the bookies were refusing to quote odds.

Minelli has a record of 57 victories, 12 defeats and seven draws. In his only start this year, he outpointed Charley Spicer at Brooklyn last month.

IKE WORKS ON GOLF SCORE; TO TOSS FIRST BALL

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Vacationing President Eisenhower trained his sights anew on a below-90 golf score today after a bow to the baseball world.

The President, his headquarters said, will be on hand to toss out the first ball when the Washington Senators meet the World Champion New York Yankees at Griffith Stadium in the nation's capital Thursday.

Eisenhower switched plans and decided to go to the baseball game after rain washed out the American League opener the Senators and the Yanks were scheduled to play in Washington yesterday.

The President had passed up the opener days before it was canceled—in favor of flying to Augusta yesterday for a vacation of golf.

To Drop In At Stadium

But his plans called all along for a one-day trip back to Washington Thursday for a speech at an editors' meeting. So he decided—when the baseball game was put off until that day—40 drop in at Griffith Stadium for at least part of the game before returning to Augusta.

He still plans a stop at Salisbury, N. C., late Thursday afternoon on the flight back to Augusta. He will take part at Salisbury in the 200th anniversary celebration of Rowan County.

The President was accompanied from Washington by Mrs. Eisenhower, their three grandchildren, the children's mother, Mrs. John S. Eisenhower, and the First Lady's mother, Mrs. John S. Doud.

SCRIBES QUIZ NEWS, RADIOMEN ON MOSCOW VISIT

NEW YORK (AP)—Seven newspaper and radio executives just back from Moscow insist they have seen and heard exactly what they saw there whether their tour of Russian capital was carefully arranged by the Soviet government or not.

They said they would continue writing and telling about it, being careful to evaluate what they had seen in relation to other information at hand.

The seven were interviewed about their trip through Europe, especially the seven-day adventure in Russia, by a group of reporters appearing on an ABC television program Saturday night.

One newsman quoted a colleague as saying he felt the tour had been an "affront and insult" to journalism, and that the visitors had been "led by the nose."

"No Hidden Mikes" "Has that journalist ever been to Moscow?" asked Mrs. James S. McIlvaine, publisher of the Downingtown (Pa.) Archive and one of the tourists. The answer was "no" and Mrs. McIlvaine suggested that his colleague visit Russia himself and report his own impressions.

E. A. Simon of the Tarentum (Pa.) Daily News said he inspected his hotel room carefully for hidden microphones but could find none. He said he also took several walks around the city, going as far as two or three miles and watched for a possible "shadow."

"I can honestly say I don't think I was followed at any time," he said.

A reporter asked Simon if he could speak Russian and could have questioned anyone he encountered on his walks.

Simon said he could not. The reporter then asked if the Russian government knew he could speak no Russian.

"I imagine so," Simon replied.

RAGING STORM POUNDS ISLAND

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands (AP)—The North Sea, racing through the English Channel under the impact of a storm center, regained complete control Monday over the island of Duiveland, one of the worst hit areas in the disastrous Feb. 1 floods.

On the eve of a new spring tide which reaches its peak next Tuesday, the racing North Sea waters overwhelmed at several spots an inner dyke guarding the 2,100-acre Bruijnse Polder (reclaimed land) at the island's eastern extremity. It had been reclaimed only four weeks ago from the earlier flood waters.

On the other end of the island, the emergency dykes of the 860 acres Burgh-and-Westland Polder were punctured, flooding the polder which reclamation workers had almost pumped dry.

The hurricane-lashed North Sea waters submerged Schouwen and Duiveland Islands in the Feb. 1 floods, killing 519 of the 1,783 inhabitants.

In the Bruinse inner dyke, 45-yard gaps were torn. Volunteers worked feverishly to build new sandbag water barriers in the island.

MAY LIFT VOTE RULE

The measure, applying to the entire state except the City of Philadelphia, was sent to the Senate yesterday.

BUILDING HOMES FOR BIRDS

When early colonists arrived in what is now the eastern part of the United States they found Indian tribes hanging prepared gourds on stubs of bare trees to make homes for purple martins. In a wilderness where native birds were countless in numbers, the Indian apparently appreciated the martin's annual visit for its economic worth in protecting his meager cultivated crops from predatory insects.

Several friendly birds require man-made houses or at least they will not multiply unless such facilities are offered them. The purple martin is one of the first house-seeking birds to arrive. Observation over several years indicates the martin will appear in this latitude around April 12 to 20. The editor will appreciate postal cards from readers as to the exact date when the first martin is seen this year.

The cheerful little wren usually arrives soon after the martin and is almost wholly dependent on finding a ready-built house awaiting her. Neither martins or wrens will multiply in a neighborhood or return more than one or two more springs if man is not co-operative in hanging out a sign of "rooms to rent" in the form of suitable houses for immediate occupancy.

Among recognized rules to follow in erecting bird-houses are: (1) Do not provide too many houses; (2) Choose partial and not complete shade, although most birds tolerate full sun; (3) Houses on poles are preferred to those fastened to buildings; (4) House entrances should face away from prevailing winds; (5) Entrances should be sheltered by projecting but not interfering roofs; (6) Martins prefer houses apart from trees and away from regular haunts of human beings; (7) Wren houses may be nearer the ground and less remote from human contacts; (8) All birds are afraid of cats, dogs and chickens; (9) Houses should be constructed so they may be thoroughly cleaned before winter; (10) Occupied houses should never be closely inspected or even approached; (11) English sparrows and bluejays drive desirable birds away from houses; (12) Next to ready-to-move into houses, birds like available drinking water and baths.

Martin houses should measure 6 by 6 inches floor dimensions, with a ceiling height of 6 inches. The entrance should be one inch above the floor level and 1½ inches in diameter. Houses should be 15 to 20 feet above the ground.

Wrens demand 4 by 4-inch floor dimensions, with ceiling 6 to 8 inches high. The entrance should be cut one to six inches above the floor level and no more than one inch in diameter in order to bar sparrows and jays. Usually wrens will accept a house that is 6 to 10 feet above the ground.

Song sparrows take a fancy to rooms measuring 6 by 6 by 6 inches, with all four sides open and the house fairly close to the ground.

Chickadees demand one side of its apartment open, with room measurements of 6 by 8 by 8 inches and a height of 6 to 15 feet from the ground.

The rumor that martins destroy bees is a half-truth. They capture only the slow-moving drone bees. Banding tree trunks with smooth roofing metal for 2 to 4 feet at a height of 3 to 8 feet will attract nesting birds because they soon become aware that cats cannot reach them.

All persons interested in birds should write their Congressman for free copies of Farmers' Bulletin 1456 — Home For Birds. In the meantime, build and set up houses for both martins and wrens.

GROWING SUMMER SQUASHES

Summer varieties of squashes, while sensitive to frost, are more hardy than cantaloupes, watermelons, and cucumbers. Thus, they may be started at least two or three weeks before cucumbers are normally planted, although it is necessary to protect the plants on nights when late frosts may threaten. These few extra details will be more than repaid in prodigious harvests of delicious squashes in early summer.

Many gardeners are circumventing late frost dangers with this vegetable by planting seeds in individual pots or bands in a cold-frame as early as the middle of April and keeping the plants thriving there until frost perils are past in May. Then the plants may be moved to their growing place without in any manner disturbing the roots.

Squashes demand a deeply mellow, fertile loam. It is largely a waste of time to attempt to grow them in hard, shallow clay loams unless well rotted manure or thoroughly decomposed compost is worked liberally through the rooting stratum to a depth of at least 12 inches. Commercial fertilizers will not correct soil defects for this or any other vegetable.

Last year the editor experimented with vegetative mulching for squashes and found that the bearing season is greatly prolonged and yields considerably increased by keeping a heavy mulch of waste vegetation around the plants. Of course, no minor part of the cited benefits accrue from conservation of soil moisture beneath the mulch.

The Summer Crookneck (yellow) is one of the most popular of the bush sorts. And the well known Bush Scallop, sometimes called Cymling, is also widely liked. Then too, prominent among summer varieties are the so-called Marrows, including Zucchini, Coccinelle, and several related types.

All summer squashes are harvested for immediate consumption. None is grown for storage because they must be eaten while their rinds are soft and easily dented with the thumb nail. If they are kept harvested close by this test, plants will continue to blossom and bear for several weeks.

Winter squashes, on the other hand, are hard-rinded and are always allowed to ripen on the vines for storing. They are usually planted in early June and should not be confused with the soft-rind summer varieties.

Few readers report any serious trouble from insects attacking summer squashes. But the striped cucumber beetle may visit the plants, in which case the pests should be killed off at once with a dusting of a mixture of one part (by weight) of calcium arsenate and 15 parts fine gypsum. Or they may be killed by a prompt application of rotenone, either in dust or spray form. In case the calcium arsenate-gypsum dust is

FAMILY OF SIX PERISHES IN FIRE

ELLENVILLE, N. Y. (AP) — A family of six was wiped out Monday in a fire that leveled their 100-year-old rural frame home.

The father, a guard at the Woodbourne Correctional Institution near here, apparently died in a futile effort to save his wife and their four small sons.

The dead were Vaughn Decker, 30, his wife, Mary, 27, and their sons, Richard, 5, Stephen, 4, Carey, 3, and Vaughn Jr., 8 months.

Decker's body was found on the living room floor fully clothed. Police said he apparently was overcome by smoke as he sought to reach the other members of the family, who were asleep. Decker had finished his tour of duty at midnight and probably was still awake when the blaze started. The bodies of Mrs. Decker and the four children were burned beyond recognition.

New G.O.P. Chairman Is A Big Gladhander Who Has Set His Sights On Elections In 1954

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tall, bald, 52, and with an untamed chin, Leonard W. Hall is the Republican version of Jim Farley: a big gladhander.

When everybody was mad at almost everybody else in the Republican convention last July, Hall paraded contentedly behind an oversized button which said: "I like everybody."

This is an attitude whose durability should be lavishly tested in the next two years. It paid dividends last week when all factions of the GOP conducted an apparently peaceful election of Hall as chairman of their national committee.

The poetic license he employed at the moment of his election—"We must man the dikes for Ike in '54"—was intended to show from the start that his eyes were on the ball, his feet on the ground, and his heart in the right place.

In this case the ball is the 1954 congressional election which the Republicans ache to win. The margin of their present majority could hardly be slimmer: a majority of one in the 96-man Senate and seven out of 435 House members.

Hall will be chief oiler of the party machinery. Besides raising funds and trying to get government jobs for Republicans who have been waiting 20 years for them, he must deal with, inspire, lead, advise and pacify, not only other members of the national committee—146 in all—but Republican governors, mayors, various local big shots and Republican groups.

Since the national committee—made up of men and women chosen by Republicans back home in all the states and territories—usually meets no more than twice a year, Hall will have to depend day by day on the help of perhaps 150 paid staff workers in the committee's six-story headquarters here.

Served In House

Hall is a political pro. He served seven terms in the House and has just given up a $25,000 a year job as a New York surrogate—judge of wills—to take over the chairmanship for which his predecessor, C. Wesley Roberts, got $32,500. Hall says he'll practice law on the side, he says, but not in government cases.

Since President Eisenhower, the nominal head of the party, will spend most of his time running the government, Hall will have to run the committee and the party organization. All his efforts will be for nothing, of course, if the Eisenhower administration has failed to impress the customers by next election day.

Jim Farley, who has become a kind of political legend as a wizard when he was chairman of the Democratic National Committee under President Roosevelt, might have had a quick and sad end if Roosevelt had been unable to convince the voters that he had what they wanted.

Peggy Lee's Formula Is: "Never Let Go Of A Dream"

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Anybody today who manages even to pay his rent regularly has some kind of a formula to explain his success.

I like Peggy Lee's formula: "Never let go of a dream. Sometimes you don't know yourself when you start winning. Right when you think you're still losing, a jewel is falling into your lap."

Peggy, now one of the nation's top vocalists, had to hug her dream through some long rugged seasons before she worked up to her present $250,000-a-year income.

Faith In Herself

But she never lost faith in herself—or her dream.

"No matter how rough things were they never bothered me," she says now. "It just seemed to me as if I were waiting for the right thing to happen."

Peggy, now a svelte silver-blonde was a plump little schoolgirl in Jamestown, N. D., when she first began daydreaming of becoming a famous singer.

She never had taken a professional singing lesson. But along with her dream, she had a giant faith in herself—and a stubborn Norwegian-Swedish belief that work will get you what you want.

Pawned Graduation Gift

Peggy pawned her high school graduation watch to make her first trip to Hollywood. For a time she got by on 25 cents a day for food. She had to borrow a dress from a beauty shop operator for her first night club engagement.

"But I was too young, too shy to speak up for myself then," she said. Rebuffed in Hollywood she came back to North Dakota broke—but with her dream still undented.

She perfected her singing style in radio work, finally started her real climb to fame as the songbird with Benny Goodman's band.

Juke Box Queen Now

Today Peggy is a juke box queen, has a movie contract, and is one of the highest paid singers on the supper club circuit. She has written some 25 song lyrics, including a number of hits.

Peggy lugged her own suitcase on her first trip to Hollywood. The last time she went out to make a film she had two wardrobe trunks and 32 pieces of hand baggage.

Sen. McCarthy Reports New Ship Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) says he has obtained agreement from another group of Greek ship owners to curb trade with Communist nations.

McCarthy's announcement that he had received word from a number of Greek ship owners in London, that they were voluntarily withdrawing their ships from trade with Red China and other Soviet bloc nations, came after he had a meeting yesterday with Mutual Security Director Harold E. Stassen.

GRUNEWALD'S RECORDS BEING COMBED TODAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators today planned a dollar-by-dollar combing of the income, running into six figures, from which mystery man Henry W. Grunewald says he bought costly gifts for federal officials.

Some of it came from an investigation conducted for United Mine Workers President John L. Lewis, Grunewald testified yesterday, and some came from betting on the horses.

He refused to disclose the nature of the services he said he performed for Lewis at a time when the mine workers' president was in trouble with the federal courts.

Refuses To Answer

Lewis, who has said Sen. Bridges (R-NH) introduced him to a Lewis attorney, Lowell Mayberry, who hired him and paid him. Bridges for a time was a trustee of the mine workers' welfare fund, at $35,000 a year.

Rep. Boggs (D-La.), reading from a transcript of previous closed sessions of a House ways and means subcommittee, asked Grunewald if he did not make "several trips and several inquiries" with respect to the late Judge T. Alan Goldsborough.

Grunewald refused to answer, saying the question was "not pertinent."

Goldsborough, a federal district judge here, fined Lewis' mine workers three million dollars in 1947 for failure to heed his order that they call off a strike and go back to work. At the time, the government had seized the soft coal mines.

Allied Planes

Gen. Mark Clark, U. N. Far East commander, would answer. He had told the Reds earlier that a renewal is the "second order of business" to the disabled POWs exchange.

Wednesday morning three convoys totaling 68 vehicles were to be on the way from the Yalu River on the Manchurian border to Kaesong, the Red prisoner holding point and truce headquarters six miles from Panmunjom.

Meet Again Tonight

The convoys probably carry no more than half of the 600 U. N. prisoners.

The only discussion at Panmunjom Tuesday was a meeting of low-level staff officers of both sides. They agreed on wording of English, Korean and Chinese versions of the document incorporating mechanical details for the exchange.

The staff officers were to meet at 11 a. m. Wednesday (9 p. m. Tuesday, EST).

HONOR STUDENT NEW PRESIDENT OF STATE F. H. A.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A 15-year-old Plymouth Township High School honor student, Lorraine Jablonski, will direct activities of the Pennsylvania Future Homemakers of America during the 1953-54 school year.

Miss Jablonski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jablonski of West Nanticoke, Luzerne County, and a sophomore, was elected to succeed Gail Keck, Hatfield, Montgomery County. She was installed over the week end at the closing session of the eighth annual convention of the PFHA.

More than 800 delegates from throughout the state, representing 12,000 club members, attended the three-day meeting.

The new state president has been in FHA work two years and has been prominent in her regional program.

Other Officers

New first vice president is Francis E. Dietz, 16, of Kreutz Creek Valley Joint School, Hallam, York County. Miss Dietz was county cherry pie baking queen.

Other new officers installed were: Patricia Hilliard, Berlin, Somerset County, second vice president; Joyce Fosnaught, Ellwood City, Lawrence, third vice president; Sandra Kresge, Clarks Summit, Lackawanna, fourth vice president; Margaret M. Pritch, Cambridge Springs, Crawford, secretary; Dorlene Blue, Burgettstown, Washington, treasurer; and Doris Kinglad, Boiling Springs, Cumberland, historian.

Earlier the state homemaking degree, highest honor given by the organization, was awarded to these 18 girls:

Joan M. Fedder, South Lebanon, Lebanon County; Betty Jane Weller and Doris Ann Shives, Mercersburg, Franklin; Ima I. Reichard, Greencastle, Franklin; Nancy Botz, Lemasters, Franklin; Marian Mable Good, Dayton, Armstrong; Louis Jean Yerges, Elders Ridge, Indiana; Marie Kopatz, Lucille Thomas and Dorothy Trowbridge, Rush Township, Susquehanna; Ursula Leunis, Towanda, Bradford; Gail Rosenbloom, Coudersport, Potter; Dolores Hasen and Elinora Lane, Robinson Township, Monn Run, Allegheny; Jean Stephenson and Illa Jean Miller, Newton, Ransom, Lackawanna; Alberta Jean Musto, Galeton, Potter; and Olynda Chaffee, Laraysville, Bradford.

Following the installation of the new officers the organization's executive board made a tentative selection of Eagles Mere, Sullivan County, for the 1954 state convention. The PFHA constitution calls for conventions to be held in a different region every year.

CAPTURE SOLDIERS

BALTIMORE (AP)—Police said two soldiers who escaped from the Cumberland stockade near Harrisburg, Pa., yesterday were later captured here in a stolen car.

The two were identified as Pvt. William Cole and Robert Darden. The stolen vehicle had a Pennsylvania license, police reported. Military police from the stockade picked the pair up last night.

AGED ATTORNEY DIES

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Thomas Ross, 79, a former assistant U. S. attorney in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, died Saturday at his home here. Funeral services were held Monday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Doylestown. Burial was in Doylestown Cemetery. He is survived by his widow and three sons.

STRIKE CLOSES 16 FORD PLANTS

DETROIT (AP)—Assembly lines at 13 of the Ford Motor Company's 16 Ford, Mercury and Lincoln plants across the country were closed Monday because of a strike of 2,300 workers in a Monroe, Mich., parts plant.

The closing idled 47,000 of Ford's 130,000 production workers, and a Ford spokesman said that "the total idle could easily reach 75,000 as more of our plants run out of parts."

CIO United Auto workers walked out at Monroe April 1, charging a speedup. Company officials denied the accusation. Negotiations have failed to break the deadlock, but were resumed Monday.

The Monroe plant makes wheels, coil springs and chrome parts.

Of the 47,000 laid off 11,000 were at Ford's giant Rouge plant here. It normally employs 65,000. Another 3,600 were laid off at the Mt. Road plant and 195 at the tractor plant in Highland Park.

A company spokesman said all available sources of supplies are being tapped in an effort to keep production lines operating as long as possible at plants which still are operating.

The closed plants included the one at Chester, Pa., where some 1,800 workers were furloughed. An official said there the company hopes to be able to resume production by Wednesday.

SUSPEND LICENSES

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Liquor Control board yesterday suspended the licenses of these individuals and clubs, effective May 5, for the reasons cited:

Myrtle M. Mehring, R. 3, Hanover, 20 days, permitted minors to frequent, sales to minors (retail dispenser's license.)

B. Florence Myers, Rothweiler Cafe, Lancaster, 20 days, sales to intoxicated persons, maintained unsanitary premises.

Rene Pleven Visits With Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Rene Pleven, France's national defense minister, had a "friend to friend" talk at the White House Monday.

Pleven was with the President about 20 minutes.

He told newsmen afterward that "no official business was discussed—it was just a friend to friend conversation."

Asked whether there had been any mention of Atlantic Pact problems, Pleven replied:

"We talked about a lot of things, but it was just a friend talking to a friend."

Pleven said he has known Eisenhower for about 11 years.

NEW GAS FIRE BATH TOUGHENS ARMOR OF U.S. TANKS

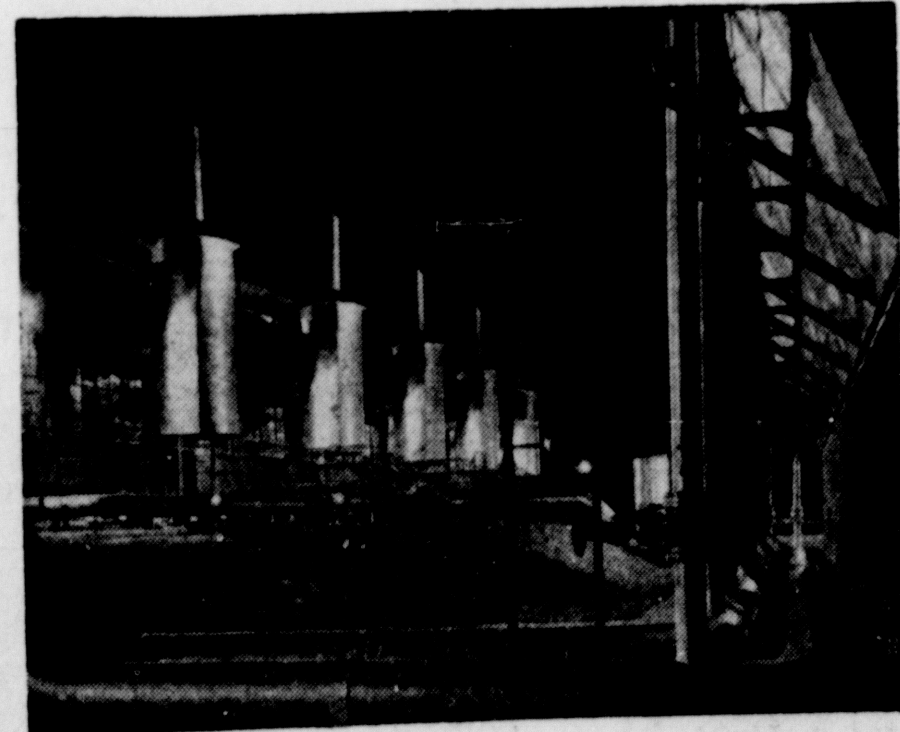

Variations in size and thickness of tank armor castings make uniform hardening a serious problem. General Steel Castings Corporation solved this by using continuous heat treating furnaces equipped with precision gas cup burners. Philadelphia Electric Company, a customer of Texas Eastern, supplies gas for these huge, high-temperature furnaces at Eddystone, Penna.

Fighting in exposed positions a tank has to withstand enemy fire, roll with the punches and come up fighting. It's only as tough as its armor. Solid steel castings hardened at high temperatures in block-long gas furnaces give our tanks the toughest armor possible. Why furnaces fired by gas? Because gas produces terrific temperatures... is exactly controlled... and does the job with practical economy.

Mystery Gland In Brain Is Body's Real "Boss" Gland

DENVER (AP)—A mystery gland in the brain seems to be the real boss gland of the human body, it was announced today.

It even translates thoughts of love or sex or fear or hate, to order other glands into action. This could explain how thoughts of love could stimulate production of sex hormones. Or how seeing sudden danger spurs adrenal glands to give you extra adrenalin, in order to fight or run.

This big-chief gland is the hypothalamus. Scientists haven't been sure just what it does, or how it works. It's been called the seat of the emotions, and apparently is involved in the strange mechanism of sleep.

Find Amazing Role

An amazing role for the hypothalamus is found in insect experiments by Dr. Berta Scharrer of the University of Colorado School of Medicine.

One control, she finds, is that the hypothalamus actually produces some hormones, and sends them to what, in humans, would be the back part of the pituitary gland. These hormones regulate the salt and water and fluid balance of the body.

Brand New Facts

The brain gland sends these hormones through a nerve to the pituitary, for a storage and release when necessary.

Sending hormones along nerves is a brand new discovery.

Dr. Scharrer and her husband, Dr. Ernst Scharrer, found this evidence in work with giant South American cockroaches, big fellows one to two inches long. Other scientists are finding other evidence of the hypothalamus being a boss gland. The experiments were described to science writers making a tour of Western research centers, sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

3 Autos Figure In $65 Accident

Three automobiles figured in a minor accident on the Lincoln Highway at 8:50 p.m. Saturday a mile east of Abbottstown in which total damage was estimated at $65 to all three cars.

Automobiles operated by Joseph L. Glass, 16, of Abbottstown and Carl E. Prosser, 42, of 639 S. Washington St., were traveling west. The mixup occurred, state police said, when Glass passed the Prosser car and skidded when he saw a car driven by Donald Kuhn, 18, of New Oxford R. 1, approaching from the west.

In the resulting mixup, fenders were dented, paint scraped off, and taillights smashed. Damage to the Glass car was estimated at $50, to the Kuhn car at $10 and to the Prosser car at $5.

LYCOMING GOP WOMEN ON TRIP

WASHINGTON (AP)—A White House visit and luncheon in the Speaker's Dining Room of the capitol are on today's sightseeing schedule for 36 members of the Lycoming County (Pa.) Council of Republican women.

The visiting women, who arrived by bus from Williamsport yesterday, will be luncheon guests of Rep. and Mrs. Alvin R. Bush of Muncy.

Bush, whose congressional district includes Lycoming County, has arranged to have House Speaker Martin (R-Mass) meet the visitors at lunch.

The White House visit has been divided. Half the group, accompanied by Mrs. Bush, go there today. The other half, accompanied by Miss Virginia Morris, Bush's secretary, will go tomorrow.

The women, who made a similar trip to Washington two years ago, are staying at the Continental Hotel, where the Bushes make their home while in Washington.

20,000 PRIMARY BALLOTS ORDERED

The order for printing more than 20,000 ballots for the spring primary election to be held May 19, was given Saturday by the county election board, Clarence C. Smith, secretary, said.

There are 18,420 registered Republicans and Democrats eligible to vote in the primary, and the law requires that extra ballots be printed, amounting to ten per cent of this total. In addition, 500 veteran ballots will be printed.

Although 18,420 persons are registered 10,652 Republicans and 7,490 Democrats, politicians anticipate that no where near this number will vote. The greatest lack of interest in the spring primary will come in the Democratic party, it is expected. The Democrats have no contests on either the county or state tickets.

The Republicans have contests in the county for sheriff, clerk of courts and county treasurer.

CAPEHART SAYS U.S. ECONOMY ON SOUND FOOTING

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Capehart (R-Ind.), replying to Democratic suggestions that the Eisenhower administration may be heading the country toward a depression, said today the national economy is on a sound footing.

Capehart, chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, spoke out after a new Democratic blast at higher U. S. bond interest rates. Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey defended the higher interest rate on a new bond issue which appeared, from signs in Wall Street and Washington, likely to be heavily oversubscribed.

Capehart said he sees no factors in the present economic situation that should bring any recession and none indicating any increase in inflationary pressures.

Fear Recession

"Payrolls are the biggest in our national history, the government still is spending about a billion dollars a week on the defense program and while farm prices have dropped, they seem to have leveled off," he said in an interview.

However, Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) joined eight other Democrats and independent Sen. Morse of Oregon in declaring that a boost in interest rates on government bonds, ordered by Humphrey, already is operating to tighten credit for farmers and small businessmen and may bring an economic recession.

"Because of the Treasury's action, interest rates are going up all over the country," Sparkman said. "That means it not only is going to cost more for the farmer or small businessman to borrow money but in a great many instances it means that the banks won't make the loans at all. That already is happening."

Sparkman said he estimated the increase in private lending rates, as a consequence of the Treasury's action in offering 30-year bonds at 3 1/4 per cent interest, would cost the average small home buyer $8.33 a month more on his installment payments.

Wants Pa. Keystone Symbol On Plates

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rep. Edward Dunn (R-Northumberland) wants the keystone symbol incorporated into Pennsylvania's automobile license plates.

At present, the tags are stamped with the outline of the state's boundaries.

But the keystone is more appropriate, Dunn said in a House resolution introduced last night, because "Pennsylvania truly served as a keystone to impart strength and stability" to early America.

Ex-Governor Tuck Runs For Congress

DANVILLE, Va. (AP)—William M. (Big Bill) Tuck, out of public office since he left the Governor's Mansion three years ago, made his bid for a seat in Congress today in a special election in Virginia's Fifth District.

It marked the nation's first election for a congressional seat in a Democratic area which bolted to the Republican camp in last November's presidential race. Polls in the district's nine counties and two cities opened at 6 a. m. and will close at 6 p. m.

Lorne Ross Campbell, 43-year-old political newcomer from Independence in Grayson County, opposed Tuck.
